

Unemployment Rates in Appalachia, 2000

Compared with the U.S. Average

Unemployment rate is the number of unemployed persons as a percentage of the civilian labor force. The percent of the U.S. average is computed by dividing the county unemployment rate by the national average and multiplying by 100.

